HACU College and Career Fair

FREE EVENT

The Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities invites you to a College and Career Fair

Sunday, October 5, 2014, 2:00 - 5:00 pm
Sheraton Denver Downtown Hotel (Plaza Building Foyer/concourse level)
1550 Court Place, Denver CO.
Open to the public. No registration required.

- Middle school, high school and college students are encouraged to attend.
- Meet with college and university representatives.
- Network with prospective employers.
- Attend informational workshops; tentative topics include:
  - Admissions 101 - Whether you are a high school student applying to college or a college student applying to graduate/professional school, come and learn about the top ten things that make a successful application
  - Money, Money & More Money - Grants, Loans and Scholarships. Explore your options for paying for a college degree and searching for financial aid options.
  - Choosing the Right Career for You - Discover how job shadowing, volunteering, internships and other opportunities can introduce you to career opportunities and help you prepare for that future job.

Don't forget to bring your family!
