Study Abroad

Gilman Scholarship Applications Open

The U.S. Department of State's Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program is pleased to announce that the application is open for Gilman and Gilman-McCain Scholarships. This program enables students of limited financial means to study or intern abroad, providing them with skills critical to our national security and economic prosperity. Community college students are important to the mission of providing access to abroad opportunities.

Gilman offers scholarships of up to $5,000 to U.S. undergraduate students of high financial need participating in credit-bearing abroad programs or internships that have a start date from May 1, 2020 to April 30, 2021. Students studying critical need languages may be eligible to receive an additional award of up to $3,000. For more information.

The application is due Tuesday, March 3, 2020 by 11:59pm Pacific Time.

- Advisors must certify spring 2020 applications by Tuesday, March 10, 2020.
- Read the eligibility requirements.

As part of the Gilman Program, the following scholarships are also available:

Gilman-McCain Scholarship

The Gilman-McCain Scholarship provides awards of $5,000 for child dependents of active duty service members who receive any type of Title IV federal financial aid to study or intern abroad on credit-bearing programs.

Gilman-Global Wales Scholarship

The Global Wales program is a partnership consisting of Universities Wales, the Welsh Government, the Higher Education Funding Council for Wales, and the British Council. This scholarship is committing $25,000 over the next two years to support Gilman Scholars to study at Welsh universities. Funding is matched by the U.S. Department of State.

Gilman-Education New Zealand Scholarship

Education New Zealand (ENZ) is New Zealand's government agency for building international education and promoting New Zealand as a study destination. This partnership sustains a wider effort to support students who have traditionally been underrepresented in study abroad, including those of Native American heritage, and will commit $250,000 over the next five years to support Gilman Scholars who study or intern abroad in New Zealand. Funding is matched by the U.S. Department of State.

Gilman-France Scholarship

The French Embassy in the United States and Gilman Scholarship Program partnership offers a highly selective award for those studying or interning abroad in France. This scholarship supports the overall effort between the United States and France to increase and diversify international student mobility among French and American higher education institutions.

Please email Gilmanadvisors@iie.org with any questions.

International

Application Closing Soon: Greece IAPP

Application Deadline: January 31, 2020

IIE invites you to join the International Academic Partnership Program (IAPP) and visit Greece! Up to twelve U.S. higher education institutions will be selected to participated in an intensive 6-month journey that provides institutions with the knowledge, advice, and face-to-face connections needed to start new partnership activities with a Greek counterpart or enhance existing collaboration. IIENetwork members receive a discounted registration.

Learn more about the Greek higher education landscape with a presentation from the Greek Ministry of Educational and Cultural Affairs and how Greece is aiming to become a higher education hub.

Have more questions about the IAPP program? View the webinar recording of IIE's discussion with the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Education and Cultural Affairs and the Greek Ministry about what IAPP can help your institution achieve.

Apply Now