

Sixth Annual Deans' Forum on Hispanic Higher Education

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2017 • 8:30 A.M. - 1:30 P.M. • HILTON SAN DIEGO BAYFRONT • CALIFORNIA

The Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU) Sixth Annual Deans' Forum on Hispanic Higher Education will focus on "Exemplary Practices: Developing Effective Hispanic Teacher Pathways." Presenters will share perspectives on ensuring PK-12 teacher diversity reflecting the Latino student population. Topics and discussions will address strategies in teacher recruitment/retention, preparation, and institutional/systemic factors affecting teacher success.

The Forum offers deans from colleges and universities across the country an opportunity to dialogue and share experiences, promising practices and ideas.
