

75th OREGON LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY--2009 Regular Session

NOTE: Matter within { + braces and plus signs + } in an amended section is new. Matter within { - braces and minus signs - } is existing law to be omitted. New sections are within { + braces and plus signs + } .

LC 997

House Bill 2766

Sponsored by Representative WHISNANT

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Specifies minimum number of instructional days that class schedule adopted by district school board must provide.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to school year.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. { + (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, each district school board shall adopt a class schedule that provides no fewer than 180 instructional days each school year to students who attend a school of the district.

(2) If a school district has a four-day school week, a district school board may adopt a class schedule that provides fewer than 180 instructional days each school year.

(3) The State Board of Education shall adopt rules that establish the standards of an instructional day. Rules adopted under this subsection may require different minimum and maximum numbers of hours in an instructional day according to:

(a) The grade level of the student.

(b) Whether the school district has a four-day school week or a five-day school week. + }

SECTION 2. { + Section 1 of this 2009 Act first applies to the 2010-2011 school year. + }

-----