

2013 HACU EVENTS

San Antonio, TX

10th International Conference
Creating Global-Minded
Environments on Our Campuses

February 27-March 1, 2013
Grand Hyatt San Antonio
San Antonio, TX

Every two years HACU hosts an international conference to address issues related to the global higher education community and to promote cross-border collaboration among institutions of higher education.

HACU's 10th International Conference will offer an exceptional opportunity to discuss the latest trends, model programs, research and cutting-edge issues of importance to the international Hispanic higher education community. The conference will attract an internationally renowned roster of keynote speakers and an extraordinary gathering of participants representing higher education, government, business, community and philanthropic sectors.

Washington, D.C.

18th Annual National Capitol Forum on Hispanic Higher Education

April 15-16, 2013
Westin Washington, D.C. City Center
Washington, D.C.

Each spring, advocates for the higher education success of the nation's youngest and largest population group gather in Washington, D.C., to shape and promote an agenda for Congress and the country at the annual HACU Capitol Forum. Leaders, administrators, students, and staff of HACU-member colleges and universities will join public policymakers, key federal agency leaders, allied organizations, Hispanic-serving school districts, and corporate, community and philanthropic representatives at this powerful national platform for winning public- and private-sector support for Hispanic higher education. Key to these strategic forums are Capitol Hill visits, which allow leaders in the Hispanic higher education community to interact directly with key members of the House and Senate.

Chicago, IL

27th Annual Conference
Championing Hispanic Higher Education Success: Securing
the American Dream

October 26-28, 2013  #HACU13
Hilton Chicago • Chicago, IL

HACU's Annual Conference offers a unique forum showcasing exemplary programs and initiatives of the best and most promising practices in the education of Hispanics at HACU-member institutions. Emerging trends and issues affecting Hispanics and Hispanic-Serving Institutions will be featured among the following six tracks: Grants and Funding Opportunities; Partnerships that Work; Academic Success for Hispanic Students, Research and Practice; Advocacy and Legislation; International Partnerships; and Executive Leadership for Presidents and CEOs. A student track is also offered in conjunction with the annual conference.

October 26, 2013
Preconference event: Latino Higher Education Leadership Institute

The Institute provides a dynamic professional development forum where early-, mid- and top-level faculty, staff, administrators and other higher education leaders interact, network and explore strategies for effective institutional change -- making our institutions more responsive to the needs of underrepresented students and increasing the numbers of Latina/o leaders in the academic and administrative positions.

October 29, 2013
Post conference event: Dean's Forum on Hispanic Higher Education

The forum will address issues and opportunities for the academic success of Hispanic students in higher education. Discussions will address how university leaders can implement policies and practices that make higher education more accessible for Hispanic students. Attendees will share approaches to challenges, effective practices, and promising ideas.

HACU

H I S P A N I C
A S S O C I A T I O N
O F C O L L E G E S &
U N I V E R S I T I E S

Find us on twitter.com/hacunews

facebook.com/hacunews

For more information, or to register online, visit www.hacu.net.