

Call for member news for HACU magazine

The Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities invites its members to submit news and stories for upcoming issues of The Voice of Hispanic Higher Education magazine.

Email article and/or any questions to news@hacu.net. The following news and articles are being requested:

Member news section

- Institution News about new president appointments, institution anniversary, new degree program or any news of national value will also be considered.
- For the Summer Issue we publish commencement news briefs on your graduations ceremonies and commencement speakers.

We accept press releases or a link to your published story. For all member news, please include a college/university logo. A photo will also be considered. Please include caption.

Student Success articles

The focus of these articles should be on how grant funding has made a difference in programs offered for students on your campus. Approximately 500-word count. Please include byline.

Example articles of HSI grants are those received from:

- U.S. Department of Agriculture funding
- U.S. Department of Education Title III-Part F
- U.S. Department of Education, Title V
- National Science Foundation
- CARES Act

For articles, please include college/university logo and 2-3 hi resolution photos (300 dpi). Student success articles will be considered for publishing in an upcoming HACU quarterly issue of The Voice of Hispanic Higher Education. Any article selected for publication will be published in AP style. Click here and here for samples of previous grant success stories.

The submission deadlines are as follows:

Summer 2022 Issue: June/July	June 20
Fall 2022 Issue: Aug./Sept.	Aug. 26
Winter 2022 Issue: Nov./Dec.	Oct. 21
