

The Leader-in-Residence Program

The Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities is accepting applications from undergraduate students for its Leader-in-Residence Program. This is an 8-month program where 50 students from HACU's network will have the unique opportunity to serve as ambassadors, promoting HACU programs and advocacy efforts. Selected students will participate in leadership and career development opportunities throughout the duration of the program.

Selected students receive a sponsorship to participate in the ¡Adelante! Leadership Institute, which is the student track of the HACU Annual Conference, taking place November 1-3, 2024, at the Gaylord Rockies Resort and Convention Center in Aurora, Colorado.
