

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

LONG BEACH

Teacher Preparation: HSI's Role in Teacher Diversity

21st Annual National Forum, Washington, D. C.

Marquita Grenot-Scheyer, Dean

COLLEGE OF

Education

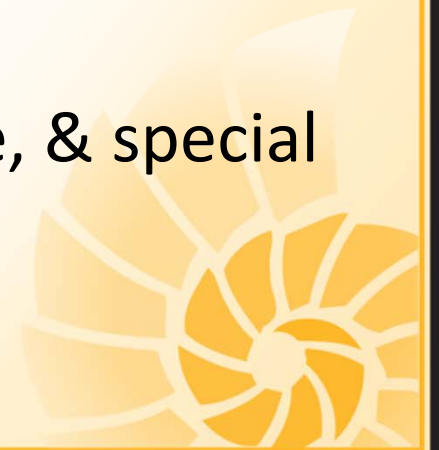

CSU Mission & Context

- Our Students
- 23 Campus System
- Teacher Preparation System & Campus Initiatives
- CSU Deans & Associate Deans, Collaborative Work
- Better Together Summit
(<http://www.cateacherssummit.com/>)

Teacher Shortage: “Perfect Storm”

- CSU prepares nearly 10% of nation’s teacher and 50% of teachers in California
- CSU nearly doubled the number of math and science teachers
- Last fall, school districts in California needed 21,500 teachers
- All credential programs produced 13,300 candidates, leaving a shortfall of over 8,000 teachers
- Subject areas of acute need: math, science, & special education

Recruitment Strategies

- System & campus commitment
- Inter-segmental Partners-Pk-16 (Long Beach College Promise)
- Financial Aid Literacy & Support
- TEACH Grants
- APLE
- CSU Teacher Corp (Personalized student recruitment model)

Student Success/Graduation Initiatives

Goal: Improve retention of & graduation rates for students of color through:

- Clearly Articulated Transfer Pathways
- Advising supports (Intentional, Systematic & Responsive) with a focus on transition points
- Urban Teaching Fellows

Thank you!

Marquita.Grenot-Scheyer@csulb.edu

