Bringing Prevention & Buy-In to Your Campus

In groups or pairs, each participant should identify one sexual misconduct prevention program that is currently running on their campus. As a group, discuss the questions below for each of your programs, jotting down notes as you go.

What is the program?

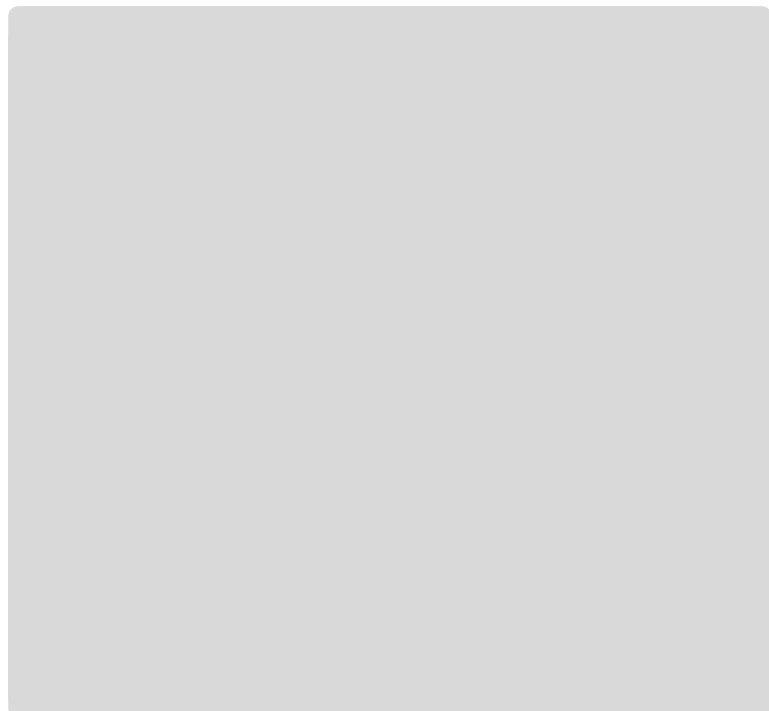

Who coordinates and facilitates the program?

Within each area below, where is the program successful in building student buy-in and where could it improve? (flip page for two further areas)
